Day 1

April 29

Arrival in Edinburgh

Welcome to Scotland!

After checking into our luxury Virgin Hotel in Edinburgh, we'll gather for a welcome dinner where you'll meet your fellow travellers and receive an overview of the incredible journey ahead. Raise a dram as we prepare to step into the landscapes that inspired Diana Gabaldon and brought Outlander to life.

Day 2 - April 30
Castles, Covenanters & Beltane Fire

From the world of Outlander to an ancient celebration of summer

We'll begin at Aberdour Castle, one of Scotland's oldest surviving stone castles and the monastery where Jamie recovers in Season One of Outlander. Dating largely from the 12th century, it preserves magnificent gardens and one of Scotland's finest medieval great halls. We'll then continue to Culross, the beautifully preserved 17th-century village known to fans as Cranesmuir, where Claire treated villagers and Geillis Duncan lived. Next, we'll visit West Kirk, the atmospheric medieval church that appeared as the Black Kirk. After dinner at our hotel, we'll experience Edinburgh's unforgettable Beltane Fire Festival, where fire, music, storytelling, and ritual celebrate the ancient Celtic beginning of summer.

Day 3 - May 1

Noble Houses, Medieval Warriors & the Highlands

From the noble houses of Outlander to the haunting heart of the Highlands

We'll begin the day at Callendar House, a magnificent mansion whose elegant Georgian façade conceals a medieval tower dating back to the 14th century. Outlander fans will recognise it as Bellhurst Manor, the home of the Duke of Sandringham, while inside we'll explore beautifully restored period rooms and uncover the history of the Livingston family and the estate's role in Scotland's turbulent past. After lunch nearby—and a wee stop in Stirling if time allows—we'll continue into the breathtaking landscape of Glencoe, whose towering mountains and dramatic valleys are forever linked with the tragic Massacre of Glencoe in 1692. Instantly recognisable from the opening titles of Outlander, the glen has become one of the most iconic symbols of the Scottish Highlands. We'll end the day with dinner and an overnight stay at Glencoe Inn.

Day 4 - May 2
Jacobites & the Road to the Isles

From the iron rails of the Highlands to the heart of the Jacobite cause

We'll watch the world-famous Jacobite Steam Train cross the magnificent Glenfinnan Viaduct before visiting St Mary's Church, Borrodale, a poignant Highland site closely connected with Prince Charles Edward Stuart and the Jacobite Rising of 1745. We'll then explore Old Fort William, built to control the Highlands following the rebellions, and visit the West Highland Museum, home to weapons, clan artefacts, personal possessions of Bonnie Prince Charlie, and stories that bring the Jacobite cause vividly to life. Dinner is included at our hotel.

Day 5 - May 3
Castles, Sea & Whisky

From Scotland's most iconic castle to the smoky spirit of Skye

We'll begin at Eilean Donan Castle, dramatically positioned where three sea lochs meet and recognised as one of Scotland's greatest landmarks. Destroyed during the Jacobite Rising of 1719 and later painstakingly restored, its storied walls reflect centuries of Highland history. After lunch at The Three Chimneys Talisker, one of Scotland's most celebrated restaurants, we'll visit Talisker Distillery on the shores of Loch Harport for a guided tour and tasting, discovering how Skye's rugged maritime landscape shapes its distinctive whisky. We'll end the day with dinner and check in at the Marmalade Hotel on Skye.

Day 6 - May 4
The Isle of Skye

From ancient clan legends to the enchanted landscapes of Skye

We'll begin at Dunvegan Castle & Gardens, home of Clan MacLeod for more than 800 years and the oldest continuously inhabited clan castle in Scotland, where we'll discover treasures including the legendary Fairy Flag, explore the gardens, and enjoy lunch overlooking Loch Dunvegan. We'll then visit the magical Fairy Glen, with its unusual hills, winding paths, and ancient folklore, before celebrating the extraordinary life of Highland giant Angus MacAskill at his museum. Our final stop is Dun Beag Broch, one of Scotland's best-preserved Iron Age stone towers, built more than 2,000 years ago. Dinner will be served at our hotel on Skye.

Day 7 - May 5
The Jacobite Cause

From the rallying place of the Jacobite cause to the elegance of Glasgow

We'll visit Glenfinnan Monument, where Bonnie Prince Charlie raised his standard on 19 August 1745 and called the Highland clans to rebellion—a defining moment in Scottish history that remains deeply woven into the story of Outlander. We'll also take in the magnificent Glenfinnan Viaduct, one of Scotland's most photographed engineering landmarks, before continuing south to Glasgow and checking into the elegant Kimpton Blythswood Square. Dinner is included.

Day 8 - May 6
Ancient Lineages & Noble Scotland

From the noble houses of Outlander to the living world of Highland warriors

We'll begin at Hunterston House, a 13th-century home belonging to one of Scotland's oldest families and recognised by Outlander fans as Reverend Wakefield's residence. We'll then explore Dean Castle & Country Park, whose restored interiors preserve centuries of Scottish history alongside impressive collections of arms, armour, and musical instruments. In Season 2, Dean Castle appeared as Beaufort Castle, the home of Jamie's grandfather, Lord Lovat, with filming taking place throughout the Great Hall, Laigh Hall, and courtyard. After lunch nearby, we'll continue to Duncarron Medieval Village, the living-history fort created by Charlie "Chick" Allan and the Clanranald Trust. Walk through authentic timber

Day 9 - May 7
The Bard & the Coast

From the words of Scotland's beloved bard to the windswept coast of Outlander

We'll begin at the Robert Burns Birthplace Museum, where we'll explore the life and legacy of Scotland's national poet and discover how his words helped shape Scottish identity. We'll then continue to Dunure Castle & Harbour, dramatically perched above the Ayrshire coast and known to Outlander fans as Silkies Island, where Claire and Jamie rescue young Ian. After taking in this memorable coastal filming location, we'll continue to the Cairndale Hotel & Spa, where dinner is included.

Day 10 - May 8
Scotland's Ancient Christian Heritage

From the spirit of Scotland's whisky country to the sacred shores of early Christianity

We'll begin at Galloway Distillery, where we'll enjoy a tasting and learn about modern whisky production in southwest Scotland, followed by an included lunch. We'll then journey to the Isle of Whithorn Priory, one of Scotland's earliest Christian pilgrimage sites. St Ninian established his monastery nearby around AD 397, helping make this region one of the birthplaces of Christianity in Scotland. The peaceful harbour and medieval priory preserve centuries of pilgrimage history before we return to our hotel for dinner.

Day 11 - May 9
Sacred Landscapes & Farewell

From Scotland's ancient sacred landscapes to the beloved home of Lallybroch

We'll begin at Cairnpapple Hill, one of Scotland's most extraordinary prehistoric ceremonial sites, used for more than 4,000 years as a Neolithic ritual enclosure, Bronze Age burial monument, and later Iron Age stronghold. We'll then visit Midhope Castle, known around the world as Lallybroch, Jamie Fraser's cherished family home and one of the most beloved filming locations in Outlander. Our journey concludes with an exceptional farewell dinner at The Kitchin, where we'll celebrate the friendships, memories, and unforgettable experiences shared across Scotland.
