

Bridgerton VIP Experience

Luxury Tour of England

May 9 - 18, 2025

DAY ONE - MAY 9

Our grand adventure commences with the arrival of our esteemed guests, who shall be welcomed in true Regency style. The evening unfolds with a splendid welcome dinner at the illustrious Petersham Hotel, setting the tone for the delightful journey that lies ahead.

DAY TWO - MAY 10

On the second day of our grand tour, our esteemed guests shall commence their day with a visit to the magnificent Hampton Court Palace. This splendid setting, often seen as the residence of Queen Charlotte in the Bridgerton series, will provide a delightful film-themed audio tour. Guests shall marvel at the historical grandeur of King Henry VIII's former abode while imagining the scenes that unfolded within its storied walls.

After the morning's enlightening excursion, a genteel luncheon shall be partaken at the Palace café, offering a charming respite in an atmosphere befitting the nobility. As the afternoon progresses, we shall venture to Osterley Park and House, the illustrious locale of the Full Moon Ball, so famously depicted in Season 3, Episode 2 of our beloved series. Here, one can immerse in the splendor and elegance that once graced these very halls.

The day's adventures shall culminate with a sumptuous dinner at the renowned Petersham Nursery and Restaurant. As twilight descends, our guests will be treated to culinary delights that promise to enchant and satisfy, thus concluding a day of unparalleled elegance and historical reverie.

DAY THREE - MAY 11

On the third day of our grand tour, guests shall partake in a delightful breakfast before bidding adieu to our current lodgings. Our journey commences with a visit to the picturesque Painshill Park, a locale renowned for its enchanting outdoor promenades and the iconic hot air balloon scene from Season 3 of Bridgerton. Here, one shall have the pleasure of sampling Painshill's very own sparkling wine, a true delight for the senses.

As we proceed westward, we shall stop to marvel at the infamous Stonehenge, an ancient wonder that has captivated many a traveler. Our day concludes in the historic city of Bath, where much of our beloved series was filmed. We shall take respite at The Bath Priory Hotel, where a sumptuous dinner awaits, ensuring a fitting end to our day's adventures.

DAY FOUR - MAY 12

The fourth day dawns with a visit to the illustrious Roman Baths, offering 2,000 years of history to uncover. Following this, luncheon will be enjoyed at The Abbey Deli, known to many as the Modiste of Madame Delacroix. Our next stop is the venerable Bath Abbey, a site of worship since 757 AD. The day's explorations continue with a visit to The Holburne Museum, once the residence of Lady Danbury, now housing over 2,000 pieces of artwork collected by Sir William Holburne on his Grand Tour.

The evening shall be graced with dinner at Hudson Steak House, a fitting conclusion to a day steeped in history and art.

DAY FIVE - MAY 13

On the fifth day, we shall visit The Royal Crescent, known to many as the Featherington residence. This architectural marvel will be followed by a journey into the literary world at the Jane Austen Centre, where guests shall learn about the life of this illustrious Regency-era author. The afternoon is reserved for relaxation, with opportunities to enjoy the spa and leisure facilities at our hotel. Dinner shall be served at the hotel, providing a tranquil end to the day.

DAY SIX - MAY 14

The sixth day begins with a departure from Bath as we make our way back to London. Along the route, we shall visit the Spirit of Hertfordshire Distillery for a delightful Gin School experience, complete with bites, a tour, tasting, and the creation of our own gin. Next, we shall explore Hatfield House, the interior setting for the Featherington's home. Our day concludes at The Lanesborough Hotel, where personal butler service and a fine dining experience await.

DAY SEVEN - MAY 15

The seventh day promises grandeur as we visit Buckingham Palace, once known as "The Queen's House" following its acquisition by George III for Queen Charlotte in 1762. Luncheon at the palace shall be followed by a tour of the Royal Mews, home to royal carriages reminiscent of the Carriage Scene. Our exploration continues at St. James Church in Piccadilly, the near-marriage site of Anthony and Edwina.

The evening offers a delightful twist with a Thames River Dinner Cruise, complete with a murder mystery to solve, ensuring an evening of intrigue and entertainment.

DAY EIGHT - MAY 16

On the eighth day, we shall visit the renowned "Ranger's House," home to over 700 works of art. Our journey continues to the Old Royal Naval College, frequently seen in Season 2 during scenes of Lady Whistledown's paperboys and Eloise and Penelope's market gossip. The afternoon shall be graced with a Bridgerton Afternoon Tea at our hotel, leaving the evening free for guests to enjoy the spa or explore London at their leisure.

DAY NINE - MAY 17

The penultimate day begins with a visit to Lancaster House, the interior setting for Queen Charlotte's palace. A light luncheon featuring charcuterie and refreshments will precede a lesson in Regency-era dance, preparing us for the evening's grand event. Guests shall have time to dress up and perfect their hair and makeup before attending the Bridgerton Regency Style Ball. This
