Adventure Itinerary

June 16-26, 2025

JUNE 16 | DAY 1

Day 1 marks our arrival at the Marine North Berwick Hotel, where we gather for a warm group welcome dinner, setting the tone for our adventure ahead. The day offers opportunities for relaxation and rejuvenation, with guests invited to unwind and indulge in the hotel's spa facilities at their leisure. It's a perfect start to our journey, ensuring everyone feels refreshed and ready for the exciting days to come.

JUNE 17 | DAY 2

Preston Mill, National Museum of Flight, Lennoxlove House, Tantallon Castle

Embark at 9:30 am for an enriching day ahead, starting with a visit to Preston Mill, famously known as the mill at Lallybroch. Next, we'll soar through history at the National Museum of Flight. Our lunch break will be in the charming town of Haddington before we delve into the grandeur of Lennoxlove House. As the day unfolds, we'll make a stop at the awe-inspiring Tantallon Castle, a majestic fortress crafted by the Douglas family in the 14th century, overlooking the serene waters. Finally, we'll wind down with a delightful dinner in town at Zitto Italian Winebar & Trattoria.

JUNE 18 | DAY 3

Gosford House, University of Glasgow, Hunterian Museum

On Day 3, we check out of our hotel at 9 am and embark on a journey rich with historical and cultural highlights. We'll visit Gosford House, famed for its depiction as Helwater in season 3, followed by a leisurely lunch featuring a delightful Sassenach cocktail. In Glasgow, we'll explore the University of Glasgow's picturesque cloisters, reminiscent of Harvard in the series, before delving into the fascinating exhibits at the Hunterian Museum. Our day concludes with a check-in at Hotel du Vin, where we'll indulge in a Chef's tasting menu paired with exquisite wine pairings.

JUNE 19 | DAY 4

Pollok Country Park, Glasgow Cathedral, St. Andrew's Square, The Grove

On Day 4 we'll set our sights on the iconic Pollok Country Park, a familiar backdrop to numerous scenes throughout Outlander. Notable for its portrayal of pivotal moments such as Jamie and Fergus's journey to Le Havre in season 2 and the dramatic duel between Jamie and Black Jack Randall in France. After lunch, we'll explore Glasgow Cathedral, recognized as the hospital in Paris where Claire volunteered and gave birth to Faith in season 2. A pause at St. Andrew's Square offers a glimpse into the theatrical ambiance of season 4, before we indulge in a pint at "The Grove," a pub frequented by Claire, Brianna, and Roger. Our day concludes with dinner at Six By Nico.

Craigh Na Dun film location, Highland Folk Museum, Inverness

Day 5 commences with a 9 am check-out, leading us to the mystical "Craigh Na Dun" film location, an ancient iron age ringfort steeped in history. Our journey continues to the enchanting Highland Folk Museum, a living testament to the past, immortalized in season 1 of Outlander during the episode "Rent." As dusk approaches, we make our way to Inverness, where the picturesque Glen Mhor Hotel awaits, nestled along the tranquil banks of the River Ness. Here, we'll relish in a delightful dinner, surrounded by the serene beauty of the Scottish Highlands.

JUNE 21 | DAY 6

Castle Leod, Beauly Priory, Culloden, Clava Cairns, Inverness

On Day 6 our first stop is Castle Leod, ancestral home of Clan Mackenzie and the inspirational setting for Castle Leoch in Outlander. Continuing our exploration of Clan Fraser's heritage, we'll venture to the ancient Beauly Priory, a 13th-century site where many Frasers have found their final resting place. An optional visit to Culloden and Clava Cairns offers further insight into Scotland's rich past. Guests can also explore the charming city of Inverness or indulge in the amenities of the hotel. Dinner arrangements are left to individual preferences.

JUNE 22 | DAY 7

Benriach Distillery, Braemar Castle,
Helen Gallogly Presentation

On Day 7, our adventures commence at the Benriach Distillery for a whisky tasting journey followed by a delicious lunch. Next, we visit Braemar Castle, once home to the chiefs of Clan Farquharson and a pivotal site in Scottish history, notably marked by the beginning of the 1715 rising. Our accommodations for the evening await at The Fife Arms, a cherished retreat frequented by Sam Heughan and steeped in royal history as Queen Victoria's former hunting lodge. As the day draws to a close, we're treated to an enlightening presentation by Outlander textile artist Helen Gallogly, sharing her insights from working on the show, followed by an intimate dinner in her company.

JUNE 23 | DAY 8

Balmoral Castle, Tomnaverie Stone Circle

Day 8 commences with the illustrious Balmoral Castle, the cherished Scottish residence of the royal family. Steeped in history, this estate held a special place in Queen Elizabeth's heart, as she spent significant time here and passed away within its walls in 2023. Our journey then takes a mystical turn as we explore the enigmatic Tomnaverie Stone Circle, evoking echoes of Craigh Na Dun and offering a glimpse into ancient Scottish spirituality. After a day filled with royal and mystical encounters, we return to the comfort of our hotel for a delightful dinner.

JUNE 24 | DAY 9

St Andrew's Cathedral, Dunino Den, Edinburgh, Signet Library, Dalhousie Castle

On Day 9 we'll immerse ourselves in the ancient ambiance of the Cathedral of St. Andrews before venturing to the mystical Dunino Den, adorned with Celtic carvings and steeped in Pagan lore. Then onto Edinburgh, where we'll indulge in Afternoon Tea at the Signet Library, a regal setting that transformed into the Governor's mansion in Jamaica during Outlander's third season. A brief detour to the location of Jamie's print shop at Bakehouse Close offers a glimpse into the series' iconic scenes. We'll have dinner at The Kitchin Restaurant, as featured in Men in Kilts, before retiring to Dalhousie Castle. Fun fact: Jamie suggested naming their child after "Dalhousie" in season two's "La Dame Blanche" episode.

JUNE 25 | DAY 10

Rosslyn Chapel, Craigmillar Castle, Midhope Castle with Gillebride MacMillan

On the last leg of our journey, Day 10 promises cinematic and historical marvels. Our first stop is the iconic Rosslyn Chapel, immortalized in the Da Vinci Code movie, followed by a hike to the Gunpowder Mill, where Claire and Jamie shared a memorable moment in season 1. Then we'll venture to Craigmillar Castle, whose exterior served as Ardsmuir Prison. Our final destination is Midhope Castle, affectionately known as Lallybroch, where we'll be serenaded by Gillebride MacMillan, the bard from Castle Leoch in season 1, as we savor "Colum's Rhenish." Our journey culminates in a farewell dinner at Dalhousie Castle, reflecting on the unforgettable experiences shared throughout our Outlander-inspired adventure!
